

BROOKE MCDONALD

STEWARDESS

I am an enthusiastic professional looking to launch my skills into the yachting industry. I have a genuine passion for hospitality and I am striving for a long term career onboard a motor yacht in which I can transfer my skills and learn from my crew.

I feel my fresh energy brings a positive and laid back atmosphere, and as a professional mixologist with 6 year high end hospitality experience, I am confident that I will adapt quickly and without exception to all requirements and beyond, given the right opportunity.

EXPERIENCE

Browns cocktail and Gastro Bar - 2019-2023

Events and bar manager

- Attending regular masterclasses, receiving international sponsorships, hosting events and learning the depths of fine mixology.
- Working up to be the bar manager responsible for all bar events, budgets, orders, menu pairings, and being the face of the bar dealing with the highest level of clientele.

The Boathouse Group - 2018-2019

Restaurant Supervisor

- Becoming accustomed to silver service and maintaining rosette level standard.
- Going above and beyond to satisfy customers and handling any issues with the upmost professionalism.

Care UK 111- 2017-2018

Health advisor

- How to manage an emergent life/death situation and also how to remain calm whilst instructing others.
- Using my judgement to assess a situation and give the appropriate help to those in need.

The Harrow -2016-2018

Waitress-Supervisor

- Basics of serving, taking orders and food/wine pairing.
- Working my way up to restaurant supervisor.

Although I am new to the industry, a key point to highlight about myself would be that I have spent a considerable amount of time around boats my whole life and would not consider myself green to the hard work it requires to maintain/upkeep a boat. Growing up in the hospitality industry also would prove that long hours and giving my all to my job is second nature and not something I am new to, its something I enjoy.
